

The seminars are organized by Paola Pietrandrea, Ariane Robert, Luisa Troncone, Miriam

From the perspective of the addressee Online Seminar Series

The seminars, to be held between November 2025 and June 2026, focus on exploring how messages are received and interpreted. Through lectures and discussions, we will delve into the addressee's role in linguistics.

14/11/25, 15:00

Miriam Voghera (University of Salerno)

The Addressee's role in Speaking

12/12/25, 15:00

Emilia Calaresu (University of Modena and Reggio Emilia)

The Addressee as Co-constructor of Discourse

16/01/26, 15:00

Caterina Mauri (University of Bologna)

The Addressee as Co-constructor of Meaning

13/02/26 (date TBC), 15:00

Edoardo Lombardi Vallauri (University of Roma TRE)

The Reception of Implicit Contradictions

13/03/26, 15:00

Francesco Cutugno (University of Naples Federico II)

Intendi?, ¿Entiendes?, Did you get it? -
*The Acoustic Unpacking of Meaning

10/04/26, 15:00

Anke Grutschus (University of Bonn), Ad le Jatteau & Paolo Mairano (University of Lille)

Sociophonetics from the Addressee's Perspective: a case study

15/05/26, 15:00

Elena Battaglia (University of Italian Switzerland, University of Lille)

The role of the addressee in an interactional semantics

05/06/26, 15:00

Paola Pietrandrea (University of Lille, CNRS UMR8163 STL & IUF)

The Addressee's Role Online

Link zoom to the seminars

To stay updated, and get more information about next meetings, you can keep an eye on www.dipsumdills.it and/or <https://olindinum.humanum.fr/>.

Follow us on Instagram at @linguistic_salerno.

